

Cheap

Only in Price.

Reliable in Quality

Bargain Basement.

This Bargain Basement has created a revolution in the buying and selling of low-priced merchandise. Cheap in price and cheap in quality is the logical rule. There can be the exception—as in this Bargain Basement—of reliable merchandise at low prices.

THE GREATER PALAIS ROYAL

A. LISNER.

Hours: 9 to 5:45.

G STREET.

"A $100,000 Sale"

A "Race Against Time Sale."

It is not often in a lifetime that circumstances create such a sale. The "Opening" of the newly Greater Palais Royal is to occur in September—and none but new furniture is to go into the new building. The present stock is offered at reductions in prices to win the race against time.

Choice of Lambert's Holland-Dutch Arts and Crafts Furniture, Stickley Brothers' Arts and Crafts Dining Room, Library and Hall Furniture, The Widdicomb Furniture Company's Bedroom Suites of solid mahogany and Circassian walnut, The Luce Furniture Company's Dining Room and Period Furniture of all kinds, The Michigan Chair Company's High-grade Dining Room and Bedroom Chairs, The Taylor Company's Library and other best chairs advertised in the magazines as "Taylor's Comfortable" Rockers, Improved Beds, finished with new English lacquer and guaranteed not to tarnish, Kindel Parlor Beds, Heywood Bros. and Wakefield Art Reed Furniture, Royal Morris Chairs, Gunn Sectional Bookcases, the best of today.

This Suite, $49.50

White Enamel Chiffonier, Dresser and Dressing Table. The suite at nearly half the standard price.

Mahogany Suite, $79.50

A Sketch

Milady more critically examines the treasures she found at the Palais Royal, and is more than ever delighted.

The May Sale Ends--Bargains Begin

$1.98 $1.79 $1.33 89c 69c 46c 23c

For Lingerie That Was—In Some Instances—Nearly Twice the Prices Quoted Now.

Very much the busiest month in the career of this department for Lingerie ends this week with a "bunching" of the "broken lots" and reductions in prices to assure their speedy sale. While some of these garments are muddled, none are a month old and all are representatives of the latest styles—the new Tango Garments, Appenzell Motifs, the "En Dishable" Gown, in conjunction with "Corsetless" Combinations, Bloomers, Underbodies, Princess Slips, Skeleton Skirts, the "Fig Leaf" Drawers, etc.

See the Many Tables Full—on the First, Second and Third Floors

On third floor are the "Secco" silk garments in dainty colors, as well as in white; values to $4.00 at only $1.98. At $1.33 and $1.79 are the late $2.25 to $3.50 garments. On first floor tables, at 69c and 89c are garments worth to $1.98. At 46c are combination garments and separate gowns and skirts that were 75c. At 23c are the corset covers and drawers to match.

"Lyra" Corsets, $5.00 Models for $3.69

Demonstrated in Conjunction With American Lady Corsets at $1.00 to $3.00.

American Lady Corsets represent an infinite number of designs, some reflecting the latest and most ultra features of fashion, others more conservative in their style. There are models showing the modish soft materials and flexible boning, these for slender and medium figures, affecting the fashionable silhouette of the free, drooping figure. There are models showing heavier materials and boning, provided for average and medium figures, requiring more substantial support. In a word, whatever is demanded, in figure or fashion, is reflected in American Lady Corsets, and, moreover, it is superior, supreme, in style, service and satisfaction. And the prices are only $1.00 to $3.00.

First Floor—Rear of elevators.

A Spot

For Bargains.

The Back of the Elevators

On First Floor.

The great thoroughfares beginning at both the G and Eleventh street entrances are eventually more or less blocked by the elevators. Thus the reason for the best bargains "back of the elevators." The following will be found here tomorrow—back of the elevators:

50c and 79c.

The usual $1.00 Blouses at 50c and 79c will be found on Second Floor and Basement Floor Tables.

Art Needlework Department Offering

Filmy Crepe Voile Blouses for the Nominal Price of 75c.

Give them the touch of embroidery—each blouse is stamped and a diagram furnished—and the result will be a garment looking worth dollars. Note that these filmy crepe voile waists have new flaring collars and raglan sleeves, in the wanted shades of rose, flesh, copenhagen and tango.

Scarfs at 79c and $1.50.

Others at 15c and 29c.

These 18x72-inch Linen Scarfs, plain and with drawnwork centers, at 79c and $1.50 are standard at $1.00 and $2.00.

At 15c are Pillow Slips and at 29c are Bureau Scarfs in Dolly Varden effects.

Boys' 50c "Bell" Tapeless Blouse Waists, 39c

To offer fifty-cent U. S. silver coins at 39c is hardly more astonishing than to offer 50c "Bell" Waists at 39c. For other surprises, for both fathers and their boys, see this evening's Times, page 3.
